CLUB CAR REWARDS WITH XRT

Utility Vehicle Manufacturer drives interest with “Xtreme” promotions series for 2008

AUGUSTA, GA (May ‘08) – Club Car is excited to announce that Bob Charette of Somerset, Massachusetts raced his way to the Coca-Cola 600 in Charlotte, NC on May 25. Charette won Club Car’s “XRT Race Day Xperience” promotion, the first of three consumer promotions for 2008.

Launched in early March, the XRT Race Day Xperience encouraged consumers to visit their local dealership, test-drive an XRT utility vehicle and enter to win a prize package to the race. The package for two included round-trip airfares, accommodations, tickets to the race, a special race experience with Hendricks Motorsports, $500 spending cash and commemorative gift.

Charette entered through his local dealership, Country Club Enterprises (29 Tobey Rd., Wareham, MA.). The winning dealer also received the same prize package as incentive for participation in the corporate-sponsored promotion.

Driving Summer Sales

Club Car will continue to drive XRT utility vehicle interest and foot traffic into the company’s dealerships this summer with the second XRT promotion. The “XRT Xtreme Rewards” promotion, running June 1-August 31, includes both finance options and bonus accessories for those purchasing one of the company’s 4x4 series utility vehicles, including 2009 models.

Customers can choose from two financing opportunities: 0/0/0 equates to no money down, no interest and no payments for six months –OR– 5.9% financing for 48 months. In addition, customers will be able to “pimp their ride” with up to $750 in free XRT accessories. Some of the more popular accessories on the XRT line include brushguards, radio, headlights/taillights.
